Facts and Resources for Oregon Youth and Parents

Thank you for participating in the ABCD study. If you or someone you know is having a problem with emotional concerns or substance use, help is available.

You are NOT Alone

- Dial 2-1-1: www.211.org
- Youth Suicide Prevention Program: 1-800-273-TALK (8255) www yspp.org
- Portland Women’s Crisis Line: 1-888-235-5333 calltosafety.org

For assistance with substance use and mental health concerns:

- Oregon Addiction and Mental Health Services: 503-945-5763 www.oregon.gov/oha/amh/Pages/index.aspx

Local Counseling Services:

- Therapist Finder Tool: www.therapists.psychologytoday.com

If you are feeling depressed, anxious, or just need someone to talk to...

- Trevor Project (for LGBTQ youth/young adults): 1-866-488-7386 www.thetrevorproject.org
- Stop Bullying: 1-800-273-TALK (8255) www.stopbullying.gov

National Suicide Prevention Lifeline

- The National Suicide Prevention Lifeline provides emotional support 24/7. If you are hard of hearing or would prefer to speak to someone in Spanish, this lifeline has specific phone numbers to best help you. This lifeline is completely confidential, anonymous, and meant for all ages. CALL English: 1-800-273-8255 CALL
  Go to: https://suicidepreventionlifeline.org/chat/ to chat online or https://suicidepreventionlifeline.org/ for specific resources including

Crisis Text Line

- If you are having a crisis or a hard time right now, text the Crisis Text Line to talk to someone who is there to listen and help bring a heated moment into a more calm state. This hotline is 24/7, completely confidential, anonymous, and meant for all ages.
  TEXT the word “LISTEN” to 741-741 if you are in crisis
  Go to: https://www.crisistextline.org/fast-facts/ for an entire list of teen-friendly resources

David Romprey Warmline

- If you are in a place where you are needing to talk to someone but it is not an imminent crisis, the David Romprey Warmline is there to listen and talk as long as you needed. This hotline is available 24/7 and is completely confidential and anonymous.
  CALL: (971) 239-7255

abcdstudy.org
Lines for Life YouthLine
- With Lines for Life you can text with another teen from 4-10pm or call, email, or chat with an adult at any time. Both the teens and adults are trained and ready to listen. You can talk in a completely confidential and anonymous setting and talk as long as you need. To find out more about who you are talking to go to http://www.oregonyouthline.com/
  - CALL: 877-968-8491
  - TEXT: teen2teen to 839863
  - EMAIL: teen2teen@Linesforlife.org
  - SUICIDE LIFELINE CALL 800-273-8255 (24/7/365)
  - TEXT: 273TALK to 839863

For some low-cost counseling and treatment options, check out:

Portland State University Community Counseling Clinic
1900 SW 4th Ave
Low-cost services; counselors are supervised practicum students.
(503) 725-4620
http://www.pdx.edu/coun/clinic

Lewis & Clark Community Counseling Center
4445 SW Barbur Blvd; Open: Mon-Fri 9am-8pm; Sat 10am-2pm.
Offers a variety of counseling services; affordable, sliding-scale fees.
(503) 768-6320
http://graduate.lclark.edu/clinics/community_counseling

Pacific Psychology & Comprehensive Health Clinic
Affordable services available.
Portland Clinic: (503) 352-2400
Hillsboro Clinic: (503) 352-7333
http://www.pacificu.edu/our-resources/clinics/psychology-clinics/contact-us

Humanist Counseling Services (Multiple Locations)
Non-faith based, free counseling services. Donations accepted.
(503) 948-5473
www.portlandhumanists.org

Sexual & Gender Minority Youth Resource Center (SMYRC)
Works with ages 13-23.
(503) 872-9664
http://www.newavenues.ors/smyrc/

Wise Counsel & Comfort (Multiple Locations)
Affordable counseling/therapy; call for payment options.
(503) 282-0182
http://portland-therapist.org/